Announcements and Family Matters

WELCOME & HAPPY SABBATH: We are delighted to welcome everyone to worship on this sunny Sabbath day. If you are visiting for the first time, we invite you to fill out the Welcome to Our Church card so we will be able to contact you in the future. If you are in need of special pastoral care or a visit, kindly indicate on the Welcome to Our Church card. You may place the card in the offering plate or give it to an usher.

GUEST SPEAKER: We welcome to our pulpit today Pastor Natalie D. Roberts. She is currently the Chaplain of Bahamas Academy and ministerial intern with the South Bahamas Conference. She earned her bachelor's degree in theology with a concentration in pastoral evangelism and counseling from Oakwood University, Huntsville, Alabama. Natalie is married to the love of her life, Keith Roberts for a year and a half and proud parents of baby Elliana Danielle. Keith works at a cable installer at Cable Bahamas. Pastor Natalie loves working with and empowering youth to have a passionate relationship with God and be about their "Father's business." Gets excited about the best job in the world- Inviting people to spend eternity with God

SINGLES THIS IS YOUR TIME: All Singles (persons aged 25-105), please be reminded of our night out under the theme "Friends connecting with Friends" @7:00pm at Cafe West tonight; donation $10.00.

SET YOUR CLOCKS AHEAD TONIGHT: Remember to set your clock and time pieces one hour ahead before you go to bed tonight. The time changes to Day Light Savings Time officially at 2.00 a.m. tomorrow morning. This would mean that you all have one more hour of sun light each day. Next Sabbath sunsets at 7:18 p.m. The time will go back to Eastern Standard Time on November 2, 2014. That's a total of nine months of DLS.

GLOABLE YOUTH DAY: Calling ALL YOUTH of the Centreville Church. Next week we are going to paint Centreville 'Black.' Under the theme 'BE THE SERMON.' Join us as we go into the community during the Divine Service to witness and distribute loaves of bread to our surrounding neighbours. Persons who haven't already done so can still place an order for their 'black' shirts. All orders will have to be in tonight after AY or tomorrow at the latest.

ADVENTIST YOUTH: Please join our AY Department this afternoon at 5:00 pm for another exciting program from Ashley & Pierrica. Let each one bring one and let's make our AY program even more exciting. Come out and support our Youth.

COMMUNITY SERVICES FUNDRAISER: The Community Services Dept is preparing for their grand 2014 fundraiser— a cook-out especially geared toward the corporate and wider community to be held, Thursday, March 27 at the church house. Church members are asked to assist by selling dinner tickets or by making a monetary contribution. Please call Sis Cindi Scavella at 427-5284 or contact Bro Harrison Moxey or any of the team members. Your support is greatly needed to raise money to assist the underprivileged in our community.

PATHFINDERS: Due to the Funeral Service of Sis. Esther Zonicle, there will be NO Pathfinder Club meeting tomorrow. Club will resume next Sunday - March 16th at 10:00am sharp. Pick up time is 12 noon. March 23rd will be our first outing for the Year. This hike promises to be a very exciting one. Consent letters will be sent home next week. Children who show up without a signed consent form will not be allowed on the hike.

SINGLE ADULTS MINISTRIES WINTER SPLASH: All singles, please be reminded of your night out under the theme "Friends Connecting with Friends" tonight at 7:00pm at Cafe West, Donation $10.00. Ages 25-105.

EIGHT WEEKS TO WELLNESS: The program continues every Monday at the Bahamas Academy Gym on Wulff Road.

WOMEN'S MINISTRY: The South Bahamas Conference Women's Ministry department is scheduling a number of events this year, under the able-bodied leadership of Sis Donnalee Bowe. The first event is their annual "Tea Party in the Gardens," Sunday May 18, near the grounds of the Breath of Life Church, Marshall Road. All women are asked to purchase their tickets and a special invitation is extended to the "young ladies" of the church. See Sis Margaret or Victoria Forbes for ticket information or contact Sis Curline Forbes at the Conference office.

The next big event is the annual Women's Retreat, June 6-8, at SuperClubs Breezes. Hotel packages have already been determined and out of town guests confirmed. See any of the Women's Ministry team members for applications or call Sis Curline Forbes at the Conference office to make your plans to support and attend this local conference event.

During the month of April, the department will host a "Prayer at Sunrise" on the beach. Check the bulletin for further details.

There are also a number of Family Island retreats scheduled, and we would like for as many of you that can go to attend, fellowship and relax. Read the bulletin for future upcoming events and details.

BASKETBALL SEASON: Team Coach Jason Greene reminds the church to come out and cheer on our "Centreville Stoppers" on Saturday nights and Sunday afternoons at Bahamas Academy.
