Pastor’s Weekly Notes

Bless the Lord oh my soul and all this is within me.
Bless His Holy name. Happy Sabbath and Welcome to one and all.

Happy Youth Sabbath. A special Welcome is extended to Michael Toote Jr. - Our Guest Speaker.

B4-G.R.O.W.T.H. Rally this coming Wednesday night.
Our Speaker will be Elder Michael Duvalier We are asking every unit leader to be represented along with their unit members. Come and commit your small group to the outreach event.

Pastor Paul and Sis. Joan are both travelling this weekend. Your prayers are requested.

Vacation Bible School is being planned for our young people and the Community. Let us pray for great success. The dates are June 22nd - July 4th.

Education Day will take place on April 4th. Let’s continue to support our school in every way we can

Let us remember the Sands family in prayer as they mourn the loss of Bro. Leevan Sands.

We give thanks that Sis. Rolle was discharged from hospital on Thursday. Continue to keep Sis.
Maureen Gilbert in prayer.

There will be a brief meeting for all Deaconesses in the East Wing immediately following the service today.

PATHFINDERS: Pathfinder Club resumes tomorrow morning where we will be doing our Bread Baking Honor. All Pathfinders are asked to be at church by 7:30, as we need sufficient time for the bread to rise. This is a wonderful opportunity for our children, so we ask that Parents make a special effort to have the Pathfinders out on time. Our Veteran Bread Baking Instructors are Laura Forbes, Edith Young and Ethelyn Wallace. Pick up time is 11:00 am.

JOINT AY TODAY: THE PURSUIT: The entire Centreville Church is invited to join us at the New Providence Church, Soldier Road for a Joint AY beginning at 4:30pm. "Should we pursue a mate and how?" You don't want to miss it! Remember to wear your Church color.

GLOBAL YOUTH DAY: - Refugees, Homeless, Strangers - MARCH 21ST, 2020.
